WOMAN'S PECULIAR CHARM.

Mr. Richards says of his daughter, Mrs. Craigie (John Oliver Hobbes), that "one of her chief characteristics was the immediate and striking effect she had upon strangers. Few people who had met her even once ever forgot her and she had a marvelous power of attracting confidences; men who had only known her some hours would confide in her, not only their love affairs, but their religious difficulties, the whole history of their lives, with a touching assurance of her ready sympathy. It was, I suppose, to this fact that she owed her extraordinary knowledge of human nature. Men told her the truth about themselves, a confidence rarely bestowed upon any woman."

Nurse Says:

"I know what is good for young and old people," writes Mrs. Clara Dykstra, a trained nurse of South Bellingham, Wash., "and will say that I consider Cardui the best medicine for girls and women. It makes them feel like new persons, relieves their pain and regulates womanly troubles. Both my daughter and I received great benefit."
